

JESUS BREAKS UP A FUNERAL

MAY 18, 2025 | LUKE 7:11-17

OBSERVATIONS FROM A FUNERAL INTERRUPTED

- ❶ If Jesus attempted to do something about this _____ tragedy, but could not...
  - then we are all without _____;
  - this life would be nothing more than a long, meaningless funeral procession of _____.
- ❷ All of the _____ was taken by Jesus —
  - it was not in response to a _____ or to someone's expression of _____;
  - it was only in response to _____ and to human need.
- ❸ There was no _____, no evident prayer;
  - Jesus simply instructed the man to _____;
  - the miracle was _____ evident by his sitting up and speaking.

- ❹ This miracle serves as a _____ for the task we face as witnesses of the gospel;
  - sharing the gospel is not the job of a salesman who _____ people to believe in Christ;
  - it is nothing less than the _____ of those who are _____ in their trespasses and sins.

LESSONS FROM CHRIST'S MIRACLE AT NAIN

- ❶ Jesus considers no person or place to be _____. ZECHARIAH 4:10a
- ❷ Jesus considers no case or circumstance to be _____. 1 PETER 5:10
- ❸ Jesus considers no suffering or sorrow to be _____. HEBREWS 4:15; LAMENTATIONS 3:23
