

THE PARABLE OF THE DISHONEST STEWARD

MARCH 1, 2026 | LUKE 16:1-13

UP TO THIS POINT: A SUMMARY OF WHAT JESUS TAUGHT ABOUT MATERIAL POSSESSIONS

LUKE 16:13

mammon = money; _____ in; wealth
_____ (Chaldean in origin)

- ① Jesus turned the way we should view money _____.
- ② Being a genuine follower of Christ will dramatically change the way we _____ and _____ with regard to material possessions...
 - from the way we _____ it,
 - to the way we _____ it,
 - to the way we _____ it,
 - to the way we _____ it away.
- ③ When we follow Christ, we come to realize that _____ cannot get us the things that are truly important, but _____ can.
 - Christians cease to _____ in money; instead we place our trust in _____.

- Christians cease to _____ money; instead we _____ and _____ serve God.

- ④ Money and material things are _____, but we can _____ now to produce those things which will last.

LESSONS FROM A CROOKED MANAGER: PRINCIPLES TO MAKE US BETTER STEWARDS

LUKE 16:1-13

- ① Jesus commended _____ to His disciples here, more so than _____.
- ② Jesus used this parable to characterize the way the world works in _____ to the way His disciples operate.
- ③ Guard yourself: our sense of _____ should not be for the sake of worldly _____, but for the sake of _____.
 - Be _____ with the opportunities you have.
 - Be _____ with the money you have.
 - Be _____ no matter how much you have.
 - Be _____ about the dreams you have.